Managers, it is your duty to read to or confirm that your players are aware of the release of liability. It is highly recommended that you keep a copy of this and present it to all new players who wish to join your team and the league.

Beyond The Game (BTG) Release of Liability Statement

In consideration for being permitted to engage in activities related to the Beyond The Game LLC ("BTG") of whatever nature, including but not limited to games, events, projects, activities; and to the fullest extent of the law; I agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless BTG, their agents, employees and contractors, from claims, demands, causes of actions and liabilities of every kind and nature whatsoever arising out of or in connection with BTG's operations.

This indemnification shall extend to claims occurring after my involvement has terminated as well as while it is in force. The indemnity shall apply regardless of any active and/or passive negligent act or omission of BTG, or their agents, contractors or employees, but I shall not be obligated to indemnify any party or claims arising from the sole negligence of willful misconduct of BTG or their agents or employees.

The indemnity obligations set forth herein shall apply to both property damage and personal injury in any person, including myself, arising from any activities which are or could be asserted against BTG as a result of any acts or omissions by myself.

As a member of BTG I also agree that as I participate in the activities sponsored by the league, including games, I do so at my own risk (i.e. I am assuming the risk of injury and/or damage) and that, I, the member shall be wholly responsible for any injuries or other damage suffered by myself due to said participation in the league activities.
